INTRODUCTION TO THE DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY SMALL AND DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS ASSISTANCE DIRECTORY

The Department of the Navy's procuring responsibilities are spread among geographically disbursed contracting activities which purchase items and/or services as required to support their respective missions and procurement assignments. Normally, considering this type of acquisition structure, the initial marketing phase for prospective sources is to identify those contracting offices which may offer the best sales potential. The Navy SMALL AND DISADVANTAGED BUSINESS ASSISTANCE DIRECTORY is designed to assist in the identification process [although it is not intended to discourage or limit contacts with any or all contracting offices which appear (to prospective suppliers) to offer any sales opportunities]. The DIRECTORY is comprised of eight sections as follows:

Section	Title	Page
1	Alphabetical Listing of Selected Products and Product Codes	I-1
2	Coded Listing of Major Service Work Categories (including Construction)	II-1
3	Cross-reference Listing of Product Codes to Navy Contracting Activities	III-1
4	Cross-reference Listing of Major Service Work Category Codes to Navy Contracting Activities	IV-1
5	Listing of Selected Navy Contracting Activities and Headquarters Offices in Unit Identification Code (UIC) Sequence	V-1
6	Listing of Selected Navy Contracting Activities (Acronym and UIC) by State and City	VI-1
7	Listing of Navy Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program Administration Offices	VII-1
8	The Navy Resale System, Listing of (Domestic) Navy and Marine Corps Resale Activities and/or Vendor Points of Contact	VIII-1

Section 1 of the Directory, Alphabetical Listing of Selected Products and Product Codes, lists products which may be purchased by Navy contracting activities. The alphabetical listing is intended to assist prospective sources to quickly identify products which they may have the capability to supply to the Navy. The corresponding coding for each product enables prospective suppliers to refer to Section 3 of the Directory to identify potential Navy product markets. Not all of the products listed in Section 1 are purchased by Navy contracting activities.

Section 2 of the Directory, Coded Listing of Major Service Work Categories (including Construction), is a listing of major service categories arranged in service code sequence. The coding for each service enables prospective suppliers to refer to Section 4 of the Directory to identify potential Navy service markets.

Not all of the services listed in Section 2 are purchased by Navy contracting activities.

Sections 3 and 4 of the Directory, Cross-reference Listing of Product Codes to Navy Contracting Activities and Cross-reference Listing of Major Service Work Category Codes to Navy Contracting Activities, respectively, may be used in the application of the product and/or service codes from Sections 1 and 2 to determine which, if any, of the product(s) and/or service(s) may have been purchased by one or more major Navy contracting activities or to identify the activity (which may be other than the Navy) with item management responsibility.

In Sections 3 and 4, the contracting activities are identified by acronym and Unit Identification Code (UIC). Some contracting activities may be listed in both Sections 3 and 4. For prospective suppliers whose products/services are not listed, related product/service data may enable a determination as to whether any of the products/services fall within the firms' general capabilities, and, on that basis, represent potential for marketing consideration. This section includes, as appropriate, Navy and Marine Corps activity listings for non-appropriated fund requirements, which normally involve retail merchandise, food products and personal services.

[Special Note: Sections 3 and 4 identify major Navy contracting activities which reported significant purchases under these product and service codes during Fiscal Year 1989 and/or activities which have traditionally purchased such products or services. The listings in Sections 3 and 4 are not entirely inclusive, and, additionally, contracting activity purchasing jurisdiction(s) may change from time to time resulting from revised mission and other requirements.]

Section 5 of the Directory, Listing of Selected Navy Contracting Activities and Headquarters Offices in Unit Identification Code (UIC) Sequence, lists major Navy contracting activities by their cognizant UICs. This Section identifies the contracting activity's name, address, name(s) of small business assistance personnel assigned to the activity and their telephone/telefax number(s), as available. These contact points serve as valuable links to the Navy acquisition system. In any contact with a Navy contracting activity where small business personnel are not identified or have been re-assigned, prospective suppliers may identify themselves as small and disadvantaged businesses, as appropriate, and request the attention of the individual(s) who can respond to requests for marketing information and related assistance.

The data included in Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, then, may provide a reference mechanism to identify the contracting activities with the products and/or services which they may purchase. As a matter of additional information, Navy procurement action solicitations normally identify the contracting activity by UIC in the first six digits of the solicitation number. A prospective supplier that has only a Navy solicitation number may use Section 5 to readily identify the name and location of the contracting activity which issued the solicitation.

Prospective suppliers may contact Navy contracting activities for placement on their solicitation mailing lists, as appropriate. The contracting activities will normally furnish an application package or other guidance upon request. Prospective suppliers should make their capabilities known to the contracting activities which they have chosen to market. All acquisition actions are processed in accordance with applicable regulatory and other procedures.

Section 6 of the Directory, Listing of Selected Navy Contracting Activities (Acronym and UIC) by State and City, provides a geographical location summary of major Navy contracting activities. This section may be used in conjunction with Section 5 for complete identification of major Navy contracting activities and small business personnel available to assist prospective suppliers.

Section 7 of the Directory, Listing of Navy Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program Administration Offices, identifies Navy points of contact for inquiries concerning the Department's SBIR Program. Firms involved in research and development in science and/or engineering areas are invited to contact these Navy offices to obtain additional information concerning this competitive set-aside program for small business concerns.

Section 8 of the Directory, The Navy Resale System, Listing of (Domestic) Navy and Marine Corps Resale Activities and/or Vendor Points of Contact, provides information concerning marketing to Navy and Marine Corps Exchanges. Sections 3 and 4 contain references to non-appropriated fund (resale) activities. Section 8 provides information concerning their purchasing structures, followed by a state/city listing of domestic Navy and Marine Corps resale activities and/or vendor points of contact for investigation of potential sales opportunities.

THE NAVY RESALE SYSTEM

LISTING OF (DOMESTIC) NAVY AND MARINE CORPS

RESALE ACTIVITIES AND/OR

VENDOR POINTS OF CONTACT

MARKETING THE NAVY AND MARINE CORPS EXCHANGES

Navy Exchanges (Domestic)

Most Navy exchanges in the United States receive procurement support from a regional field support office (FSO) or certain independent resale activities. Exchanges may also receive merchandising and procurement information from the Navy Resale and Services Support Office (NAVRESSO). Prospective suppliers to the exchanges may do business with the FSOs, NAVRESSO, or the independent resale activities. The listing which follows identifies these points of contact.

Marine Corps Exchanges (Domestic)

Marine Corps exchanges are decentralized operations that focus directly on their respective patrons. Each exchange has its own buying staff. Each buyer reviews merchandise lines and determines if a product or service should be carried based on customer demand, prices, and terms. Most purchasing is made at the exchange level; however, in some instances, purchase requirements are consolidated at Headquarters for negotiation of a system-wide contract. Prospective suppliers for Marine Corps Exchanges should contact the exchange which they wish to market. The listing which follows identifies Marine Corps Exchange locations.
